LAKESIDE VILLA & PADDOCK

At the grand Lakeside Villa, no two days are alike, and every morning brings a new adventure. Hardly surprising, for the villa is like one giant playground with its elevator and slide—not to mention the swing in the attic! Best of all, the horses are waiting in the stables below, always eager to head out for a ride with the girls.

HAPPY HORSE HOSPITAL

Everything the vet needs is stowed away in the handy box: There is an X-ray machine and an operating table in the surgery, and plasters, bandages, stethoscope and syringe are ready and waiting in the practical stowage flap in the roof. On the other side of the practice there is a spacious horse box for the Andalusian stallion with drinking trough and apples.

EMILY'S CARE SET

Emily's Care Set brings horse care to life with everything young equestrians need to groom, feed, and bond with their four-legged friend.

OPEN STABLE "LITTLE HORSESHOE"

The Lakeside Open Stable "Little Horseshoe" folds into a suitcase and can go anywhere. Accessories like hay bales, carrots and the finger comb, along with the paddock fence, can be stored safely in the extra compartment under the roof. So nothing gets lost on the way.

SOFIA'S HORSE WASH

The American Saddlebred gelding comes to Sofia's horse washing area. Everything has been thought of: the lead rope can be attached to the tether ring and real water can be pumped through the pump via a water circuit. When the horse is showered with the swiveling arm, the water runs into a collecting tray and from there directly back into the wooden barrel. Perfect!

KIM'S VAULTING SET

Riding instructor Tom has set up the vaulting area so he and Kim can practise safely. As Tom leads the horse on the lunge line, Kim practises her figures in the saddle. The baby Golden Retriever watches excitedly from his basket beside the trophy.
